OUTSTANDING TEENAGERS FEATURED IN Y CAMPAIGN PROMOTION

Two teenage members of the International Branch of the Y.M.C.A. served as models for this year's publicity program.

Mary Lou Interlino started ballet at the Y at age 4 and has held continuous membership since. She is a member of the Intermediate Leader Corps and is an accomplished swimmer and gymnast. As a volunteer leader Mary Lou teaches swimming to tiny tots on Fridays and is a volunteer arts and crafts instructor on Saturdays. Her mother is ballet mistress and ladies gymn instructor at International Y.

Don Page, former president of the leaders corps was voted outstanding youth leader in 1963. He is a graduate of the National Y.M.C.A. leader training program having attended three summer courses at Geneva Park Ontario. Don is an accomplished gymnast and swimmer and gives swimming instructions to younger members as a volunteer. His mother is also active as secretary of the local Y's youth committee. Don plans on a Y.M.C.A. career following graduation.
